SAVE THE DATE

U.S.-Saudi Business Opportunities Forum

April 28-29, 2010 – Chicago, Illinois – Sheraton Hotel and Towers

In light of Saudi Arabia's growing role in global financial and economic issues and the need for a continued collaborative U.S.-Saudi relationship in these areas, this two-day event will be a major platform for senior businesspeople and high-level government officials from both countries to explore opportunities for greater economic cooperation as well as to develop new and lasting business ties.

The Forum will feature Davos-style panels, keynote addresses, and concurrent breakout sessions. The event will have broad media coverage and offer successful networking opportunities with an emphasis on the unprecedented trade and investment opportunities now available in Saudi Arabia. There will be focus on identifying specific commercial and investment opportunities, particularly for small and medium sized companies.
